

I am writing in support of the E-Rate program. Our school serves a low income, English learning population. E-Rate helps us to give them a technology experience that they would not have at home. It also helps us to help them not be part of the technology have-nots. It would be great if E-Rate funding would support internet on student devices. Thank you.